

|  | BERGBLICK HOTEL & SPA, TANNHEIMER TAL                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | FACILITIES                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                                    | Idyllische Almwiesen, beeindruckende Gipfel, klare Bergseen – das Tannheimer Tal in den Allgäuer Alpen zählt zu den schönsten Hochtälern Europas. Genau hier, im malerischen „Bilderbuchdorf“ Grän, lädt ein ganz besonderes Refugium zum Verweilen ein: das einzigartige Fünf-Sterne-Domizil Bergblick Hotel &amp; Spa. Es ist ein Ort, an dem man die Welt für eine wunderbare Auszeit anhalten kann, um einfach nur eines zu tun: abschalten, genießen, glücklich sein! Dieses Hochgefühl spürt man schon beim Betreten des Hotels. Dieser Rückzugsort ist ein Unikat mit handgearbeiteten Möbeln, ausgesuchten Kunstwerken und einer Vielzahl an Uhrenunikaten, die die Philosophie widerspiegeln, dass im Hotel die „Zeit“ eine besondere, eine entschleunigte Rolle spielt. Die im modern-alpinen Stil eingerichteten Zimmer und Suiten ergänzen dieses Gefühl. Im Mittelpunkt der Entspannung steht der Wellnessbereich des Hauses mit Saunalandschaft, Bädern, individuellen Massagen, Beauty-Treatments (hochwertige Produkte von TEAM DR JOSEPH), Innen- und Außenpool, Yoga sowie einem Fitnessraum. Aktivurlaubern bieten sich unvergessliche Berg- und Naturerlebnisse, sei es im Sommer beim Wandern, Biken, Klettern oder im Winter beim Skivergnügen. Im Bergblick kreiert ein hochengagiertes Küchenteam Sinnesfreuden in Perfektion. Im Gourmetrestaurant Elysium werden kulinarische Akzente gesetzt. Authentisch und ehrlich vereinen sich Kompetenz, Kreativität und beste Naturprodukte zu einem feinen kulinarischen Gesamterlebnis. | Idyllic alpine meadows, impressive peaks, clear mountain lakes – the Tannheimer Valley in the Allgäu Alps is one of the most beautiful high valleys in Europe. Right here, in the picturesque „picture-book village“ of Grän, a very special retreat invites guests to linger: the unique five-star Bergblick Hotel &amp; Spa. It is a place where they can pause the world for a wonderful break and do just one thing: switch off, enjoy and be happy! Guests can feel this elation as soon as they enter the hotel. This retreat is unique, with handcrafted furniture, selected works of art and a variety of unique clocks that reflect the philosophy that “time” plays a special, decelerated role in the hotel. The rooms and suites, furnished in a modern Alpine style, complement this feeling. The focus of relaxation is the hotel’s wellness area with sauna facilities, baths, individual massages, beauty treatments (high-quality products from TEAM DR JOSEPH), indoor and outdoor pools, yoga and a fitness room. Active holidaymakers can enjoy unforgettable mountain and nature experiences, whether hiking, biking or climbing in summer or skiing in winter. At Bergblick, a highly dedicated kitchen team creates sensory delights in perfection. The Elysium gourmet restaurant sets culinary accents. Authenticity and honesty combine with expertise, creativity and the best natural products to create a fine culinary experience. | Bergblick Hotel &amp; SpaManager and host:Daniel BraunAm Lumberg 20A-6673 GränPhone:00 43 / (0) 56 75 / 63 96E-mail:info@hotelbergblick.atInternet:www.hotelbergblick.at 36 double-rooms and14 suites, rates dependingon category and seasonfrom Euro 260 per personper night including half board Distance to airport:Innsbruck 125 kmMunich 130 kmZurich 212 km |
|                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | HIDEAWAYSHOTELS 127                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |